

Host: Capstone Open University
College of Computing Sciences

NJ Chapter - January Meeting Topics

Monday, January 30 2006

The New Jersey OWASP chapter is a technical group that brings together New Jersey technology professionals such as application developers, database administrators, engineers and security folks. If you enjoy a relaxed technical peer-to-peer discussions on topics such as Programming, Architecture, Forensics, VOIP, Penetration Research, Wireless and more, attend our next meeting Membership to the local chapter is FREE click here to join our growing chapter and mailing list.

Time: 5:45 - 9:00pm

Contact person: 973-642-7123

Contact person e-mail:
tomb@accessitgroup.com
Or oe2@njit.edu

Event Speakers

Sign Up Now

NJIT CPE Program

Open Source Development

Roundtable TOPIC A

Schmoo Recap - January 13-15 2006

New York PHP - Hans Zaunere

Secure Coding in PHP

Tom Ryan, Vigilar

Application Security Tool Review

Roundtable TOPIC B

Wild Exploit Roundtable - Got Something to Share?

Meeting Location:

New Jersey Institute of Technology

College of Computing Sciences

The meeting address is:

GITC Building - Third Floor - (GITC 3710)

University Heights, Newark

New Jersey 07102-1982

CLICK HERE FOR DIRECTIONS

Refreshments Sponsored by:

Checkpoint Software Technologies Ltd.